4. What We Tell You When We Collect Your Information

In accordance with section 18 of POPIA, when we collect your personal information, we will tell you:

- Whether collection is voluntary or mandatory, and the consequences of not providing it
- The specific purpose for which we are collecting it
- Whether we intend to transfer it to a third party or across borders
- Your right to access, correct, or object to the processing of your information

On our website contact form, this disclosure appears directly below the form. If we collect your information in any other way — by phone, email, or in person — we will provide this information at or before the time of collection.

5. Why We Collect Your Information

We process personal information only for legitimate business purposes. These are:

Purpose	What it means
Service delivery	To provide IT, digital marketing, connectivity, and related services you have engaged us for
Client communication	To respond to enquiries, provide quotes, issue invoices, and manage your account
Legal compliance	To meet obligations under SARS, POPIA, UIF, PAYE, B-BBEE, and related legislation

Marketing	To share relevant service information — only with your consent or where we have a legitimate interest
Recruitment	To evaluate job applications and contact candidates
Website improvement	To understand how the site is used and improve user experience
Security	To detect and prevent fraud or unauthorized access to our systems

6. Lawful Basis for Processing

Under POPIA (s.9–11), we must have a lawful basis for every instance of processing. We rely on one or more of the following:

- Contractual necessity — processing is required to fulfil or prepare for a contract with you
- Legal obligation — processing is required to comply with South African law or a regulatory requirement
- Legitimate interest — processing serves our legitimate business interests without overriding your rights
- Consent — you have given us clear, specific, informed consent for a particular purpose

Where we rely on consent, you may withdraw it at any time by emailing helpdesk@onea.co.za. Withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing that took place before you withdrew.

7. How We Share Your Information

We do not sell your personal information. We do not share it with third parties for their own marketing. We may share it only in these circumstances:

7.1 Service providers (operators)

We use trusted third-party service providers to help deliver our services. These include hosting providers, email and productivity platforms (Microsoft 365), accounting software, and our internet service partners — Telkom, Openserve, Supersonic, Home Connect, and ND Connect. These parties act as operators under POPIA and may only process your information on our documented instructions. We have or will enter into written operator agreements with them as required by section 21 of the Act.

7.2 Legal and regulatory requirements

We may disclose your information where required by law, court order, or regulatory authority — including SARS, the CIPC, or the Information Regulator.

7.3 Business transfers

In the event of a merger, acquisition, or sale of the business, your personal information may be transferred as part of that transaction. We will notify you before this happens.

7.4 With your explicit consent

We will share your information with any other party only if you have given us explicit consent.

8. Transfers of Information Outside South Africa

Some of the tools and platforms we use to run our business store or process data on servers outside South Africa. These currently include:

- Microsoft 365 — email, documents, and collaboration (servers in the EU and USA)
- Google Analytics — website analytics (servers in the USA)
- Our hosting provider — website and data hosting (server location disclosed on our hosting agreement)

In accordance with section 72 of POPIA, we only transfer personal information to countries that have adequate data protection laws, or where we have ensured that the receiving party is bound by binding corporate rules or contractual obligations that provide equivalent protection to POPIA.

Where required, we will obtain your consent before transferring your information outside the Republic.

9. How Long We Keep Your Information

We keep personal information only for as long as necessary to fulfil the purpose for which it was collected, or as required by law (s.14). General retention periods:

Category	Retention Period
Client records and invoices	7 years (SARS and Companies Act requirement)
Employee and payroll records	5 years after employment ends
Unsuccessful job applications	12 months, then securely deleted
Website analytics data	26 months (Google Analytics default)
Marketing consent records	Until consent is withdrawn, plus 3 years
General correspondence	3 years

When personal information is no longer required, we dispose of it securely in a way that prevents reconstruction or recovery.

10. Your Rights Under POPIA

POPIA gives you the following rights over your personal information (s.5, 23–25):

- Access — request a copy of the personal information we hold about you
- Correction — ask us to correct inaccurate or incomplete information
- Deletion — ask us to delete your information, subject to lawful retention obligations
- Objection — object to processing, particularly for direct marketing purposes
